“FAITH”

A reformer, John Wesley, once talked with a man who had doubts about God and His Way of Life. The man said, “I don’t know what I will do with all my troubles and worries.” Wesley said, “See that cow looking over the stone wall?” “Do you know why that cow is looking over that wall?” “No,” the man replied.

“The cow is looking over the wall because she can’t see thru the wall.”

FAITH enables us to look over our walls of trouble and above them.

INSPIRATION

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

II Timothy 3:16

“But Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear”: (1 Peter 3:15).	I Am Just One, But I Am One To stand up for one’s convictions, when to do so often means to stand alone, is never easy, but one person taking a stand can make all the difference in the world . For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In 1645, just one vote gave Oliver Cromwell control of England. • In 1694, just one vote caused Charles I of England to be executed. • In 1776, just one vote gave America the English language instead of German. • In 1845, just one vote brought Texas into the Union. • In 1868, just one vote saved President Andrew Johnson from impeachment. • In 1875, just one vote changed France from a monarchy into a republic. • In 1876, just one vote gave Rutherford B. Hayes the United States Presidency. • In 1933, just one vote gave Adolph Hitler control of the Nazi Party. Edward Hale (1822-1909) wrote: “I am only one, but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but still I can do something; and because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something that I can do.” May God help each of us to be that “one man of courage” who will do what he can do in spite of worldly opposition. Who knows - you may change the course of history. ---Adapted from Al Maxey
