There may be those who receive this bulletin who are searching God's Word to see what they must do to be saved. If you are searching for salvation, we encourage you to turn and study these Bible references:

One must HEAR the gospel plan of salvation
(John 6:45; Revelation 1:3)

One must BELIEVE (have faith) in Christ
(James 2:24; Mark 16:16; John 6:29)

One must REPENT of sin
(Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38; 3:19)

One must CONFESS Christ deity
(Romans 10:9, 10; Matthew 10:32, 33)

One must BE IMMERSUED FOR FORGIVENESS OF SINS
(1 Peter 3:21; acts 22:16)

One must BE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH
(Revelation 2:10)

ARE YOU "CALLED" OF GOD?

There was a time when God called me audibly and in person (1 Sam. 3:4-10; Heb. 11:8). Some people still think that they hear the Lord's voice calling them. God still speaks, but now He speaks through His Son (Heb. 1:1-2). God still calls, but He calls us through the gospel (2 Thess. 2:14).

In his very interesting book, Seventy Years in Dixie, F.D. Srygley described a time when men, in their Calvinistic upbringing, felt the call to preach. To study a subject, prepare a sermon, or even select a text was a foreign concept to them. "Book larnin" was denounced as a mark of infidelity in a preacher. Beyond the knowledge of a few disconnected texts, the Bible was a sealed book to most preachers. In citing a text a preacher gave himself the widest latitude by saying it was "somewhere between the lids of the good book." Yet, such men were and still are said to be "called of God" and in communication with the Holy Spirit as one set apart for the ministry.

The Greek word kaleo is rendered "call, called or calling" in the New Testament. Every Christian has a divine "calling" (Eph. 4:1-6). This calling is not a direct audible communication from God, or His Holy Spirit, as some will claim. All that we can know of God's will for us today is from what is learned in the New Testament (2 Tim. 3:16-17; Heb. 10:9). When the Bible makes known to us the Lord's will, that is the call of God to us. Whether we hear it preached (Rom. 10:17), or read it for ourselves (John 20:30-31; Eph. 3:3-4), it is God calling men through the gospel (2 Thess. 2:14). (Cont'd inside)

A father started to read a magazine, but his little girl, Jessica kept interrupting him. Finally, he tore a sheet out of his magazine on which was printed the map of the world. Tearing it into small pieces, he gave it to Jessica and said, “Go into the other room and see if you can put this together.

After a few minutes, Jessica returned and handed him the map correctly fitted together. The father was surprised and asked how she had finished so quickly. “Oh,” she said, “on the other side of the paper is a picture of Jesus. When I got all of Jesus back where He belonged, then the world came together.”

THANK YOU

We would like to thank all of you at Northside for showing up all the time for our teen devotionals. We all have a good time. We would also like to thank you all for bringing the snacks that we really enjoy. Thanks for all the support you have given us. We really enjoy it.

(Cont’d from front)

The word “call” has four basic ideas in Scripture. First, it’s the verb for calling a person by name or title. The Lord was called by the name “Jesus” (Matt. 1:21). The elitist Pharisees loved to be called “Rabbi” (Matt. 23:7). Second, it’s the verb for summoning a person. Paul was called to be an apostle (Rom. 1:1). When my mother summoned me by “Dennis James” I knew it wasn’t good. Third, it’s the verb for inviting someone into your home for a meal (Luke 7:36-39) [Note, the word “bidden” in vs. 39, KJV]. Fourth, it’s the verb for a legal summons (Acts 4:18).

An appreciation of a few basic facts should clear up any confusion on just what is involved in God’s calling us. The call which comes to us is from God (Acts 2:39; Heb. 3:1). Hearing voices and God’s call are not synonymous! The call which comes to us is to salvation to Christ (2 Tim. 1:9). The call which comes to us is to bring us out of darkness and into His marvelous light (1 Pet. 2:9). The call which comes to us is to be separated to God’s service (Rom. 1:7). The call which comes to us always comes through the Word of God (2 Thess. 2:14). Those who are called must be called by someone (1 Cor. 1:9; 1 Pet. 1:15). Those who are called must be called by something (2 Thess. 2:13-14). Those who are called must be called out of something (1 Pet. 2:9). Those who are called must be called into something (1 Pet. 2:9).
