Begin The Day With God

Begin the day with God,
Kneel down to Him in prayer.
Lift up thy heart to His abode,
And seek His love to share.
Open the book of God.
And study a portion there,
That it may hallow all thy thoughts
And sweeten all thy care.
Go through the day with God,
What 'ere thy work might be.
Where 'ere thou art, at home, abroad,
He still is near to thee.
Converse in mind with God,
Thy Spirit heavenward raise:
Acknowledge every good best owed,
And offer grateful praise.
Conclude thy day with God,
Thy sins to Him confess.
Trust in the Lord's atoning blood,
And plead His righteousness.
Lay down at night with God.
Who gives His servants sleep.
And when thou treadest the vale of death
He will guard you and you keep.

THE POWER OF ENTHUSIASM

Ralph Waldo Emerson once said, "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm." Enthusiasm is one of the greatest forces in the world. It will win ball games, sell products, convert souls, and give us success in everything we strive to do.

The word enthusiasm comes from the Greek word 'enthousiasmos', which means "possessed" or "inspired by God." In this sense, therefore, every Christian is possessed of God and should include enthusiasm and joy in everything he does.

The Bible word for enthusiasm is zeal. In 2 Kings 10:16, King Jehu was assigned the task of destroying the influence of Baal. He said to a friend along the way, "Come with me and see my zeal for the Lord?" Imagine what could be accomplished if every Christian had the spirit of Jehu. Just as the church at Laodicea was admonished to "be zealous, therefore, and repent," God wants His church today to be enthusiastic and zealous. Christians have more to be excited about than anyone else on earth. Christians should be enthusiastic in their everyday lives. Paul writes, "I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me" (Philippians 4:13).

Enthusiasm begets enthusiasm. It can spread throughout a congregation and cause Christians to "shine as lights in the world holding forth the word of life" (Philippians 2:15). Someone has said, "You cannot kindle a fire in any other heart until it is burning within your own."
