THE TOLL OF TIME

March 3, 2010

The toll of time goes on and on with every passing day;
It never misses anyone as years have slipped away.

We're all concerned with how we look, no matter what we say;
We try real hard to tell ourselves we look like yesterday.

We spend much time before the glass, beholding what years did mold;
Then drop our heads in great despair, yes, time did take its toll.

So Father Time has his own way in getting to us all;
To some he took away the teeth and others he made bald.

Now my own case is quite unique just look and share a grin;
I think before he's through with me my nose will meet my chin.

Yes, in the times of long ago being truthful did merit ransom;
Am sure you never would believe this, I once was classed as handsome.

Some things these years have done to us to tell would be uncouth;
But when you give a passing glance you'll know we've lost our youth.

To some he's taken fifty pounds, they're quite a wrinkled lot;
Then put it on the rest of us, we look like bulging pots.

I pray as time keeps moving on we'll never lose our wit;
And know this phrase is Satan's own, "You haven't changed a bit."
