"G" FOR GOSSIP April 7, 2010

R.G. LeTourneau is the manufacturer of large earth moving equipment. One of their earlier models was known as the model "G". One day a salesman was asked what the "G" stood for. "Well, I don't really know that it stands for anything in particular," he replied. "But I know what it could stand for. It could stand for gossip because like gossip, this machine moves a lot of dirt and moves it fast.

In Proverbs 17:9, Solomon said "...he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends." Once, a young boy was playing outside an open window when he happened to overhear a visitor relate a very serious problem to his mother. Later, when the visitor left, realizing the boy had overheard the conversation, explained his responsibility in this way. "Son, if Mrs. Ledbetter had left her purse here today, would you give it to anyone else?" "Of course not," the boy replied. So the mother continued, "Mrs. Ledbetter left something more precious than her purse today. She left a story that could cause trouble and sorrow to many people. It is still hers even though she left it here. For that reason, we cannot give it to anyone else." What a lovely and sound piece of advice that is. Always remember that something given you in confidence, even a piece of careless gossip, is not yours to give to anyone else. ~Author Unknown~
