PLEASE FATHER

Father please, just for today
Help me to walk the narrow way
Help me stand, where I might fall
Give me strength
To hear Your call

May my steps, be worship
May my thoughts, be praise
May my words, bring honor
To Your Name

- THREE – Involve the Child

When singing, help him locate the page of the song. With your finger on his book, point to the words as we sing. Encourage your child to sing even though he may not always sing the right words. When the sermon is delivered, help the child locate the Scriptures cited and/or encourage him to write them down. This impresses upon the child the importance of paying attention. It also stresses that worship is active and not passive.

- FOUR – Avoid Disturbances

Make sure that your child has gone to the rest room and for a drink of water before the worship service begins. Traffic in and out of the auditorium during worship is both unnecessary (with but a few exceptions) and disruptive to the worship of many.

- FIVE – Sit Up Toward the Front

Don't follow the natural tendency to sit in the back so that the child does not disturb others. Think positively. Sit close to the front so that your child can see and hear what is happening. You'll be amazed at how much better he will behave when you sit toward the front, and how much more meaningful worship will be to you.

- SIX – Follow Through

Reinforce your child's learning by discussing various aspects of the worship period afterwards.

- SEVEN – Be Patient

Children will not act like adults, but with patience and love they can be taught to love God and worship Him from the heart. This process will take time, but it will be time well spent. The time to begin is now, regardless of how young your child is.
