Flip – Flop

By Steve Higginbotham

At least in four Old Testament passages, the expression, “The Beauty of Holiness” is employed. Holiness is indeed beautiful. As good as repentance, confession, and forgiveness are, holiness is better. We live in a time when the value and beauty of holiness is not recognized, and is not seen for what it is.

In fact, rather than focusing upon the “Beauty of Holiness,” we live in a time when people have flip-flopped this Biblical expression and are being deceived by what they think is the “Holiness of Beauty.”

Just look around. Take note of how the church seems more preoccupied with “beauty,” rather than “holiness.” Want an example? Congregational singing is giving way in some churches to special group singing and choruses. Forget about the “beauty of holiness” in the crackling, failing voice of an aged Christian widow singing, “Heaven Will Surely Be Worth It All,” and make room for the perceived “holiness of beauty” in the melodic, trained voices of professional singers. Why do you suppose that mechanical instrumental music is heard in churches today? Someone along the way decided that anything that sounded that “beautiful” must be “holy.”

Friends, don’t misunderstand. There is nothing wrong in beauty, it’s just not our aim. Our aim is holiness. The value is not in beauty, but holiness. Remember we are to worship God in the “beauty of holiness,” not in the “holiness of beauty.”

“Give unto the LORD the glory due to His name;
Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness” (Psalm 29:2).

There may be those who receive this bulletin who are searching God’s Word to see what they must do to be saved. If you are searching for salvation, we encourage you to turn and study these Bible references:

- One must HEAR the gospel plan of salvation (John 6:45; Revelation 1:3)
- One must BELIEVE (have faith) in Christ (James 2:24; Mark 16:16; John 6:29)
- One must REPENT of sin (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38; 3:19)
- One must CONFESS Christ deity (Romans 10:9,10; Matthew 10:32,33)
- One must BE IMMERSUED FOR FORGIVENESS OF SINS (1 Peter 3:21; Acts 22:16)
- One must BE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH (Revelation 2:10)

Undivided Heart

*The light of the body is the eye:
if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.*

*But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness.
If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!
(Matthew 6:22,23)*

Here is the single purpose of life. This is the picture of an undivided heart. God's kingdom and will are the purpose of life.

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (Matthew 6:24)

Look at the words "love" and "hate." Deuteronomy 1:27, 31 gives the background principle to which reference is made here. The first generation did not love God; they loved mammon (material things and fleshly ease). They had a misconception of God's love. When one loves the world he hates God.
