The Best Seat

When we attend certain events we often find ourselves trying to obtain the best seats. Ten rows up on the 50 yard line, courtside at the basketball game, or front row center for our child's play. But when we come to worship we often do not think in those same terms.

For years I listened as preachers, song leaders and others made requests that people move down closer to the front instead of staying in the balcony or in the rear seats. Especially when the numbers are down, those pleas certainly made sense. When we sit closer together we tend to sing better, fellowship more and also tend to encourage those who lead us.

However, the best seat in worship is not to be found merely in its location, either front row center, or in the very rear of the auditorium. From our human standpoint, the best seat in worship is the one occupied by you, wherever you choose to sit.

Having a concept of one place being better than another can create an occasion for favoritism or preferential treatment. James discusses this from the perspective of welcoming others in James 2:1-4 as he urges us not to treat the poor and wealthy differently. On the other hand, in Luke 14:8-11, Jesus addresses this from our point of view as we humbly consider our position in life.

“When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more honorable than you be invited by him; and he who invited you and him come and say to you, ‘Give place to this man,’ and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, ‘Friend, go up higher.’ Then you will have glory in the presence of those who sit at the table with you. For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Wherever people decide to sit in our assemblies, it does not trouble me. I realize that they have made the commitment to come and worship God and I thank God for that commitment. What does trouble me is to realize that others who were capable of attending had made a decision that hour to stay away from the assembly.

No, friends, the best seat in the assembly is not up front, nor is it on the back row. The best seat is the one that you occupy when you come to join others in worship!
