SUM...SUM...SUMMERTIME

Summertime has its seasonal joys---vacation, travel, sun, sporting leagues and events, no school, long days, gardens, etc., "which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth." (I Timothy 4:3) So we enjoy those blessings while keeping them in Christian remembrance. This summer, here are some things to remember.

Remember the local church. People's schedules are crazy, families are out of pocket, there are many pulls on our time, but the local church does not cease operations just because it is summer. Brothers and sisters are still assembling, God is still worshiped, the saved are still serving, and the lost are just as lost as ever. Remember that your attendance, your fellowship, your financial support, and your service are still counted on in your local church.

Remember spiritual growth opportunities. Summer activities may take you away from some assemblies and events, but there are special summer church programs, spiritual events, faith building fellowships, and worship assemblies that dot the summer landscape. There are mission trips, Christian camps, VBS's and SYS's. Keep up through the bulletin with special opportunities this summer.

Remember that God's kingdom exists beyond the local church. It can be a spiritual adventure and blessing to walk into a church building you have never been in before, in a town you have never been in before, to be with Christians you have never met before, to worship the same God you always worship. Do not miss that opportunity.

Remember that propriety applies to our clothing choices. I Timothy 2:9.

Remember, as you enjoy your summer, to use it for God with thanksgiving.

Dear Northside,

I wanted to thank everyone who played a role in the graduation banquet. From the Bible I received, preparation, food, attendance, gifts, to just congratulating me on my accomplishment. I wanted to show my appreciation. Northside has been so good to me.

Thank You,
Tyson Waggoner

Our Northside Family,

Again, there are no words or actions to express our appreciation & thankfulness for all the support, kindness, especially the prayers during Brittany's surgery & recovery. You have always been very supportive during the good & difficult times in our lives. We are very blessed to be a part of Northside. You always know you have friends & family, but during difficult times it makes you realize how important they are in your life.

Thanks Again,
In Christian Love,
Chris, Rena, Brittany, Lindsay & Brooks Holmes
