Many James Hayes', Only One James Hayes June 30, 2010

Have you ever searched your name on the Internet? You will find that there are many people around the world who have your name, and they are using it in any number of ways. I found all sorts of James Hayes' when I searched my name. There is a James Hayes in London who is the associate beverage director for the Thomas Keller Restaurant Group. A professor at Florida State University is teaching English to his students under the title Doctor James Hayes. James P. Hayes was killed in action on July 17, 1953, just ten days before the end of the Korean War. Unfortunately, all James Hayes' are not so noble. The authorities in Multnomah County, Oregon are looking for James Hayes because he has done many bad things. They warned the citizens not to try to apprehend him. So, there are sophisticated James Hayes', educated James Hayes', dead James Hayes', and dangerous James Hayes'. We are a complicated bunch.

It is very easy to see yourself as one in a million. Just another name. Just another face. No big deal. But I am convinced by Scripture that if you were the only person on earth, Jesus would have still died on the cross. He would have faced all the struggles, temptations and insults for you and you alone. Put your name in the blank: "For God so loved _____ that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life (John 3:16). God made you, knows you and loves you. He cares about what you say and what you think. He knows your yesterday, today and tomorrow. He listens when you pray. He gives you courage when you are weak, guidance when you are lost, and sustenance when you are needy. He gives you grace when you deserve punishment, mercy when you deserve conviction, and peace when you deserve confusion. In Jesus, you have been given everything that pertains to life and godliness (II Peter 1:3).

Webster's New World Dictionary defines the word "special" as "highly valued." You are special in the eyes of God. You might not feel special in this world, however. You may feel out of place. But in Jesus, you have a home. He said, "I go to prepare a place for you...that where I am, there you may be also. (John 14:3). If you don't have a place in this world, Jesus has one for you. He prepared it. It is just for you. You are not just a face in the crowd. You are a masterpiece. "I will give thanks to you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; wonderful are your works, and my soul knows it very well." Psalms 139:14

THANK YOU CARDS

To My Northside Family,
I wanted to take a moment to thank everyone for the cards, money, Bible, and Bible study books I received. I can not stress enough the appreciation that I have for Northside. Tyson Waggoner

Dear Northside,
Thank you so very much for thinking about me and keeping me in your thoughts. Sorry that I could not attend the supper, but I heard that the great fisherman, Wesley Carter stood in for me so I guess that makes everything ok. In Christian Love,
Isaac Carter

To My Family at Northside,
Thank you for the prayers, flowers, phone calls, visits, notes and the many cards. You are the greatest. In Christian Love,
Don Canter
