Who Said So?

Lance Cordle

A former pro football player makes funny commercials for a long distance company and people laugh – then remember that number when they need long distance. A former boxer is interviewed by a popular magazine about his life and his religious faith. He is asked about the different religions and gives a politically correct, but biblically false answer – that all contain truth, and are thus, apparently equal. Millions will read his answer and many will consider it to be true. In the above examples, the two men are celebrities. They are not experts in the matters for which they speak. They convince people with the power of their celebrity status. This is[n't] one mark of our current times: the power of “show” over substance. People allow themselves to be led to do something because someone they respect tells them they should. This, of course, is not the way it should be – God wants people to receive and understand a message before they act on it. This principle is vitally important in regard to salvation. Consider, for example, the preaching and teaching of Paul in Thessalonica and Berea (Acts 17:3-4, 11). The Bible says that in Thessalonica he “reasoned with them from the Scriptures...explaining and giving evidence...” (Acts 17:3,4 NASB). This was the basis behind his words, “This Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you is the Christ” (17:4). Paul probably held the equivalent of a Master’s or Doctor’s degree in Jewish circles, yet there was no intimidation or slick presentation – just sound reasoning from the Scriptures. Later on [in] Berea the listeners, “received the word with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so” (17:11).

There may be those who receive this bulletin who are searching God’s Word to see what they must do to be saved. If you are searching for salvation, we encourage you to turn and study these Bible references:

- One must HEAR the gospel plan of salvation (John 6:45; Revelation 1:3)
- One must BELIEVE (have faith) in Christ (James 2:24; Mark 16:16; John 6:29)
- One must REPENT of sin (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38; 3:19)
- One must CONFESS Christ deity (Romans 10:9,10; Matthew 10:32,33)
- One must BE IMMERSUED FOR FORGIVENESS OF SINS (1 Peter 3:21; Acts 22:16)
- One must BE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH (Revelation 2:10)

In this case the Bible commends a group of people specifically because they did not just take Paul’s word on the matter of salvation. Instead, they sought for proof of his claims. We must be aware that there are many, many religious claims “out there.” Celebrities, persuasive speakers, and sincere, but misguided teachers are spreading false doctrine throughout our land. We must be vigilant on an individual level. Real, honest Bible study and examination must be an ongoing process in our lives. The Bible warns of those who “by their smooth and flattering speech...deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting” (Romans 16:18). It also warns us to “believe not every spirit, but try the spirits to see whether they are from god, because many false prophets have gone out into the world” (1 John 4:1). One last, sobering thought: God will judge both speakers and listeners in the day of judgment. “So take care how ye listen” (Luke 18:8).
