I Am the Bible

I am the Bible, God's wonderful library. I am always –and above all–the truth.

To the weary pilgrim, I am a string staff.

To the one who sits in darkness, I am glorious light.

To those who stumble beneath heavy burdens, I am sweet rest.

To him who has lost his way, I am a safe guide.

To those who are sick in sin, I am healing strength and forgiveness.

To the discouraged I am a glad message of hope.

To those who are distressed and tossed about by the storms of life, I am an anchor sure and steady.

To those who search for salvation, I reveal the Savior of the world.

I am the Bible, God's holy word.

Sunday, August 3, will be Bryan LeMasters' last day with us this summer. He will soon be returning to FHU. We appreciate all his efforts, and pray that we will see him often. Thank you Bryan !!!

DON'T STAY AWAY FROM WORSHIP

Because you are poor; there is no admission charge and there are many riches within.

Because it is raining; you go to work in the rain.

Because it is hot; so is the golf course.

Because; it is cold; it is warm and friendly inside.

Because no one invited you; people go to the movies without being asked.

Because you have little children; what if you don't have them any longer? They can learn early.

Because your job makes you tired; you may lose your job, some already have.

Because you don't like the preacher; he's human just like you, besides you don't come to worship the preacher anyway.

Because there are hypocrites; you associate with them daily.

Because they always want money; so does the grocer.

Because you have plenty of time ahead of you to become a child of God; Are you sure?

A PUBLIC CONFESSION

A member of the church who has done a wrong so public in nature that others know about it such as drunkenness, reveling, bad language, is never humble enough to be forgiven until he is humble enough to publicly take away the reproach he has publicly brought on the church. When such men and women are ashamed to go before the whole congregation & make their confession by their own mouth, or through someone else when they are present, repentance is not sincere enough to obtain forgiveness.

Some have the pride of thinking it is degrading to go before the congregation & publicly acknowledge a public sin. The sin is already public. The whole church knows about it. A confession shows the humility of the sinner. It asks the forgiveness of offended brethren, & together both offender & offended may pray, petition, our Heavenly Father for forgiveness.

There is no sin more public than that of failure to worship God. There is no sin that wrongs more brethren than a failure to attend public services & to so avow disassociation with the brethren! One who has dropped out of church attendance a long time cannot slip back as if nothing happened! Christians are commanded to confess their faults that they may be healed, & they should honestly, truthfully & faithfully do so.

Be it understood that sins of a private nature are an entirely different matter. But the sin of being absent from worship of the church cannot, under any circumstances, be classed as a "private matter!"
