Too busy to read the Bible, too busy to wait and pray.
 Too busy to speak out kindly to someone by the way!
 Too busy to care and struggle, to think of the life to come.
 Too busy building mansions, to plan for the heavenly home.
 Too busy to help a brother who faces the winter blast.
 Too busy to share his burden when self in the balance is cast.
 Too busy for all that is holy on earth beneath the sky;
 Too busy to serve the Master, but not too busy to die.

“I am too busy” should never be an excuse for not praying daily. “I have too much going on” should by no means be an excuse for not reading and studying the word of God on a regular basis. “I am too busy” should not be a reason for missing worship services. This summer will be busy for all of us, but we need to learn to prioritize our busy schedule. We need to make sure that God is on top of our list every day. Jesus said in Matthew 6:33, “Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.”
