THE ART OF MARRIAGE

A good marriage must be created. In the art of marriage the little things are the big things...

It is never being too old to hold hands.

It is remembering to say, “I Love You,” at least once each day.

It is never going to sleep angry.

It is having a mutual sense of values & common objectives.

It is standing together facing the world.

It is forming a circle of love that gathers in the whole family.

It is speaking words of appreciation demonstrating gratitude in thoughtful ways.

It is having the capacity to forgive & forget.

It is giving each other an atmosphere in which each can grow.

It is finding room for the things of the spirit.

It is a common search for the good & the beautiful.

It is not only marrying the right partner.

It is being the right partner.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HUMAN RELATIONS

1. Speak to people. There is nothing as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.
2. Smile at people. It takes 72 muscles to frown – only 14 to smile.
3. Call people by name. The sweetest music to anyone’s ears is the sound of their own name.
4. Be friendly and helpful. If you would have friends, be friendly.
5. Be cordial. Speak and act as if everything you do is a genuine pleasure.
6. Be genuinely interested in people. You can like everybody if you try.
7. Be generous with praise—cautious with criticism.
8. Be considerate of the feelings of others. It will be appreciated.
9. Be thoughtful of the opinions of others. There are 3 sides to a controversy—yours, the other fellow’s and the right one.
10. Be alert to give service. What counts most in life is what we can do for others.
