HAS YOUR HOUSE BEEN CLEANED LATELY?

Children hate to hear their mother's voice say, "It's time to clean house!" This means all the toys must be put up, beds made, food put in the fridge, carpets vacuumed, and all the furniture and desks must be dusted. But this "cleaning period" is a double-edged sword. It also means that company is on the way!

Long ago, Hezekiah, king of Judah, had company from Babylon who came to visit. Hezekiah was eager to give them a tour of his palace. He craved to show them his silver, gold, spices, fine oil, armory, and his other treasures.

Later, the great prophet Isaiah asked Hezekiah, "What did these men see in your palace?" Hezekiah proudly replied, "There is nothing among my treasures I did not show them." Isaiah then prophesied, "Hear the word of the Lord: The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the Lord" (II Kings 20). This prophecy predicted the "Babylonian Captivity" that Judah would soon experience. Hezekiah's grand tour of his palace proved to be his undoing.

Now, that's ancient history, but we are not always proud to give a tour of our homes. At least we are not eager to give a tour if we have not cleaned first! In fact, we may be ashamed of those things we don't want our company to see. Whenever we have the brethren in our homes, do we clean more than just the daily dusting? What drinks do we "hide" in our refrigerators? What magazines do we desperately "sweep" off the coffee tables? What secret possessions do we "bury" among the clothes? What items do we hastily "push" under the beds?

Like Hezekiah, showing off everything in our homes might be our undoing too!

May we never forget that the Lord sees all! We may be able to "clean house" before our guests arrive, but we will never be able to hide our secrets and baggage from our omnipotent Father!

Let's resolve that there will be nothing among our treasures and our homes that we will not be willing to show!
