ATTENDANCE – WHAT’S REALLY MISSING?

A wife went to the bureau of missing persons to report the mysterious disappearance of her husband. “He’s short and thin,” she told the desk sergeant, “and bald and has no teeth, as a matter of fact, most of him was missing before he was.”

Isn’t it true of most people who are steadfastly missing from Bible class and worship services? If that which is most important – most valuable – the very substance of real life is missing, don’t expect the physical person to be present. For he or she is like a car with no motor, a plane without a pilot and instruments, a watch without works and a can without contents.
