1 CORINTHIANS FOR TEACHERS

Though I have all the Elmer's Glue and scissors and have read the lesson five times and have not love, I am not a teacher. And though I have all the construction paper, glitter and Bible posters, puzzles, and unit activities and have been in a special planning session and have not love, I am not a teacher. For being a teacher is more than being on time, present, Bible brought, and lesson prepared. A teacher is kind and smiles a lot. A teacher looks neat and is not easily provoked when something is wrong with the heating and cooling system. A teacher is not envious of other's talents, but uses his/her own creativity and talents to the best of his/her ability. A teacher seeketh not for his/her name to be praised but works for the glory of God. They bear the problems, believe and hope the best for all the children they teach, for a teacher's work is in vain unless he/she has true interest in children.

Where there be magic markers...they shall dry up. Where there be chalks and blackboards...they shall crumble. Where there be printed literature...it shall fade.

But a right relationship with God will endure forever, as it is shared in the lives of your children. All work is a result of HIS love.

And now abideth planning, preparation, and love...these three, but the greatest of these is love. For without God's love all work is for naught.
