CHRISTIANS NEED LOVE TOO!!!

Around midnight the phone rang. This time there was good news at the other end of the line—close acquaintances were going to put on Christ in baptism.

Hurrying to the church building my wife and I joined four other couples in singing and praying. Reverently we attended their confession and immersion. Months of study, prayer and personal attention were now realized in the baptistry. The angles themselves must have been on tiptoe.

Embraces, joy and prayer characterized the next few minutes.

As we were leaving the building one of the new Christians declared, "Don't stop loving us just because we've been baptized!"

POW!!! Right between the eyes!

As the words struck home I remembered a similar evening years ago. I had spared nothing as I shared Christ with an individual. A forty-five minute drive to his house and we would study for hours! Oh, the joy the evening he became a Christian!

After his baptism, forty-five minutes seemed a long drive and studying into the wee hours—well, it became "unnecessary". Today, Christianity is far removed from that man's thinking and life-style.

Why? Perhaps because an impetuous young preacher stopped loving him "just because he'd been baptized," and we concluded he didn't need attention.

"Don't stop loving me just because we're married!" "Don't stop loving me because I am now an elder!" And, "Don't stop loving me just because I've been baptized!" After all, Christians need love, too.
