Timothy Student of the Week

Jared Green is the Timothy student of the week. Jared is the son of Chris & LeAnne Green and the grandson of C. B. & Carol Wilkins. Jared is in the first grade at Longfellow and is in Mrs. Donaldson's class. Jared's favorite subject is reading and enjoys playing soccer, swimming, and playing with friends. Be sure to greet Jared after the Sunday morning services in the foyer!

There may be those who receive this bulletin who are searching God's Word to see what they must do to be saved. If you are searching for salvation, we encourage you to turn and study these Bible references:

- One must HEAR the gospel plan of salvation (John 6:45; Revelation 1:3)
- One must BELIEVE (have faith) in Christ (James 2:24; Mark 16:16; John 6:29)
- One must REPENT of sin (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38; 3:19)
- One must CONFESS Christ deity (Romans 10:9,10; Matthew 10:32,33)
- One must BE IMMERSUED FOR FORGIVENESS OF SINS (1 Peter 3:21; Acts 22:16)
- One must BE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH (Revelation 2:10)

THE GOOD PART

Jeremiah Tatum

During his ministry Jesus entered the city of Bethany and a certain woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home (Luke 11:38). Her sister, Mary, also was in the house, and with excitement took advantage of the opportunity to learn from the Master Teacher (v.39). While Mary sat at the feet of Jesus, hearing His word, Martha slaved away and was distracted with the duties of being a hostess (v.40). Being aggravated due to lack of help, Martha approached Jesus with this question, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone?" (Luke 11:40).

Instead of chastising Mary for her sitting, Martha was rebuked for busy work. Jesus responded, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her" (Luke 11:41-42). It is amazing sometimes what we can learn from the words of Jesus. It is also amazing to see how application of His wisdom will change our lives. It occurs to me that there are many more Martha's in this world than there are Mary's. We have plenty of things that keep us worried and troubled. We put so much emphasis on these things that we even argue that our purpose involves accomplishing or taking care of them. The devil will give us plenty of things to do to keep our minds off of God.

I believe with all my heart that the Bible teaches us to reach out to the lost, read our Bibles, pray, attend every worship assembly and Bible class, and teach the word of God to others. Many times sermons are dedicated to these very topics. But maybe what Jesus said in Luke 11 is simple and direct enough to cover them all.

He said, "But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part" (Luke 11:42). Mary chose to do nothing else than to humbly place herself at God's feet and submit to His will. There was nothing better or her to do with her time at that moment. There was nothing better for her to do with her life.

Every person needs to realize that whatever is going on in this world, God has something going that is better. He has something better than your job, the television, the computer, or whatever else you might be doing. On Sunday and Wednesday night, when His children meet together to glorify His name and sit at His feet and you aren't there, your name is Martha. It is impossible to justify choosing anything over Him.

I hope that we may all "be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height – to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge"; that we "may be filled with all the fullness of God" (Ephesians 3:18,19). But this can only happen if we choose the good part. If we make the right choice, we will have what Mary had – a relationship with our Savior which will not be taken away (Luke 11:42; Romans 8:35-39).

"Therefore be careful how you walk, not as unwise men but as wise, making the most of your time, because the days are evil" (Ephesians 5:15-16)
